Welcome

Dear colleagues and friends,

It is a matter of immense pleasure and privilege for us to welcome you to the 5th Congress of the Asia-Pacific Pediatric Cardiac Society (APPCS 2014), being held at Le- Meridien, New Delhi, India on March 6-9, 2014.

The scientific program will feature live workshops, interactive educative sessions and quiz program for the fellows apart from conventional plenary sessions, featured symposia, breakout sessions and oral presentation sessions for abstracts. We will involve renowned international and national faculty. Our endeavor is to provide a stimulating and memorable scientific program.

India is a land of bewildering diversity, and once you are in India, you can not stop enjoying it. The city of Delhi presents a splendid blend of modernity and traditional culture. We intend to present invigorating evenings depicting the cultural diversity of India. We sincerely hope that the blend of pleasant weather, warm hospitality and revitalizing social evenings will make the scientific environment richer.

We look forward to the honor of welcoming you in Delhi, the Heart of India, in March 2014.

About Delhi

With a history going back more than 3,000 years, the capital of India, DELHI is a seamless blend of tradition and modernity, where ancient monuments co-exist with ultramodern high-rise buildings and commercial plazas.

Spread over an area of about 1485 sq. km at an altitude of 216 m above mean sea level and with a population of 10.1 million, Delhi is the third largest city. Main languages spoken in Delhi are Hindi, Punjabi & English.

Delhi has a rich architectural heritage-from the 12th century Qutub Minar of the Slave Dynasty, through the Red Fort of the Mughals, to colonial architecture of Luytens' Delhi, the 20th Century Ba'hai Temple and acclaimed for brilliant architecture - Akshardham Temple, leaving the visitor with a memorable experience.
